

PORTSMOUTH HOSPITALS NHS TRUST
(An Equal Opportunity Employer)

CONSULTANT RADIOLOGIST
(Whole Time or Part Time)

LOCUM CONSULTANT RADIOLOGIST WITH A SPECIAL INTEREST IN NEURORADIOLOGY 3 / 6 MONTHS

Applications are invited for a locum consultant radiologist post with Portsmouth Hospitals NHS Trust. The successful applicant will join a team of 20 consultant radiologists and 1 nuclear medicine physician. The locum will provide support to a comprehensive Diagnostic Neuroradiology service (mainly adult CT and MRI brain and spine scans) to this large acute trust, joining the existing team of specialist consultant radiologists. We are seeking an enthusiastic, motivated colleague, who will participate in the provision of the Neuroradiology and Head and Neck services. You will also be expected to contribute towards the general radiology workload but will not be expected to participate in on call.

This post will mainly be based at the Queen Alexandra Hospital. The department is well equipped with 3 multislice CT scanners and 2 1.5T MRI scanners. There are comprehensively equipped ultrasound and nuclear medicine rooms, digital fluoroscopy equipment and a theatre specification digital intervention room at QA. The department is filmless with a PACS system installed in 2002. Voice recognition dictation is used throughout the department. Portsmouth has its own radiology training programme with 10 specialist registrars.

Applicants should hold FRCR or equivalent and be on the GMC specialist registrar or be within 6 months of completion of CCT. Informal visits are encouraged. Interested applicants are invited to contact Dr Janine Domjan Clinical Director of Radiology via Miss Kay Taylor, PA to CD on 02392 286000 Ext. 5302.

Applicants, who wish to work part-time are welcome to apply. Application is by CV only please, to include the names, addresses, telephone and fax numbers of 3 referees, 1 of whom should be from your current or last employment, to be sent to:
